

such corporation any deposit which may be so held by him in trust for the benefit of the depositors and creditors of any such corporation.

1892, ch 109.

85 K. It shall be the duty of said treasurer to report to the General Assembly, at each regular session, a summary of the state and condition of every trust or other corporation required to report to him or to be by him examined; and such summary shall give the date to which such reports refer, the amount of capital held by each of said corporations, the whole amount of its debts and liabilities, the total sum of its resources and such other information as he may deem useful. Any corporation making the reports and deposits herein provided for shall not be required to make any report to or submit to any examination by the Insurance Commissioner.

Ibid.

85 L. Each stockholder shall be liable to the depositors and creditors of any such corporation for double the amount of stock at the par value held by such stockholder in such corporation.

Building or Homestead Associations.

1894, ch. 331.

98. Such corporation, at any time in advance of the period of time at which it may cease to exist, according to the plan contained in the original articles of association, may advance to any member thereof, for such premium as may be agreed upon, the sum which he would be entitled to receive upon the dissolution of the corporation, or the maturity of the series to which he belongs, when said corporation has more than one series of stock, for any number of shares therein held, or may purchase from any member thereof the share or shares of stock held by him, at such price or sum as, according to the articles of association, such member may agree to receive, or instead of receiving the whole amount of said premium (in advance or deducting the whole amount of said premium) from the amount of said advance, the borrower may pay the same in weekly, monthly or such other instalments as may be agreed upon; and on payment
