

TESTAMENTARY LAW— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE.
Rent falling due after death of infant to be paid guardian	93	161	2008
Should guardian die, his administrator shall collect and account for such rent.	93	162	2008
To account for profit and increase of ward's estate; to be filed once a year	93	163, 164	2008
When guardian may spend more than ward's income.	93	164	2008
No part of ward's real estate to be diminished without approbation of court of equity and orphans' court.	93	164	2008
Sale of specific articles for cash or on approved credit.	93	165	2009
Leasehold property of ward to be sold or leased; proceeds.	93	166	2009
Court may order any money of ward to be invested	93	167	2009
Court may order location, sale and assignment of land warrants of ward	93	168	2009
For such purpose, may appoint guardian for female between eighteen and twenty-one years of age. . . .	93	169	2010
Conveyance of ground rent to owners of leasehold upon proper petition	93	170	2010
Investment of proceeds of real estate received by guardian from trustee; no part of principal to be used..	93	171	2011
Investments to be in name of ward, and not transferable without order of court.	93	172	2011
Not to sell ward's property without order of court; sale to be void; purchaser to acquire no title . . .	93	173	2011
Guardian's letters to be revoked in such cases	93	173	2011
Revocation not to extend to guardian not participating in such illegal sale	93	174	2012
Guardian appointed by will, with power to sell without obtaining order of court, may sell without such order.	93	175	2012
What guardian's account shall contain	93	176, 177	2012