

Subject to inspection.

course of his, her or their business, of any and all personal property so described, as to identify the said personal property so deposited or sold, and showing also the sum of money advanced thereon or paid therefor, the time for which any such deposit was agreed to be kept, and the name of the depositor or seller of such personal property or properties, and his, her or their place of business or abode, and such entries shall be made by such pawnbrokers immediately upon the making of any such transaction or transactions; such book or books, and the personal properties so deposited or purchased, shall be subject at all times to the inspection of such agent or officer as may be designated for that purpose by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and also to the inspection of the Marshal of Police for the city of Baltimore, and of such officer or officers as he may designate for that purpose; and all pawnbrokers who shall omit, neglect or refuse to provide and keep such book or books, or to enter therein forthwith as aforesaid an account of all deposits made with and purchases made by him, her or them as aforesaid, with all the particulars thereof as hereinbefore required, or who shall enter incorrectly in such book or books, any such account of deposits made with him, her or them, or purchases made by him, her or them as aforesaid, or who shall refuse to exhibit any of such book or books, and properties so deposited or purchased, if in his, her or their possession, or under his, her or their control, upon demand, of any of the officers empowered or authorized as aforesaid to make such inspection, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars, or an imprisonment of not less than thirty days, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Fine

Obtain license.

SECTION — Before any person or persons, or body corporate, shall transact the business of pawnbrokers in the city of Baltimore, he, they or it shall first obtain from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in said city, a State's license authorizing them to carry on such business in the said city, for which said license they shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars, and, in addition to this, they shall file with