CHAPTER 365.

AN ACT to appropriate the sum of three hundred and ten dollars and twenty-two cents, to pay the claim of Bartlett, Robbins & Co., against the State.

Preamble

WHEREAS the State of Maryland is justly and bona fide indebted unto Bartlett, Robbins and Company, of Baltimore city, for work done and materials furnished for the steam heating apparatus at the State House, upon the order of the Board of Public Works, and for which there appears to be no funds at the disposal of said board out of which to pay the same; and whereas the correctness of the said indebtedness is certified to by Ex-Governor Carroll, as the president of said board, and its payment recommended, and the same has been referred to this General Assembly by Comptroller Keating, as required by section fifty-two, article three, of the Constitution of the State; therefore,
