Houses of the General Assembly, appointed by joint resolution passed at the January Session, 1892, respectfully report, that in pursuance of said joint resolution. we did, on this 29th day of January, 1892, in the office of the Treasurer of Maryland, examine and count the bonds of the Treasury Relief Loan of said State (the same having been withdrawn by the Treasury officers from the Safe Deposit at Baltimore and brought to said offie for the purpose of being counted, examined and destroyed as required by said resolution,) and that we found said bonds to be numbered "one" to "five hundred," each inclusive, each for the sum of one thousand, and each bond had attached to the same the coupons due July 1st, 1892, and thereafter, and that said bonds were acquired by the Treasury officers by redemption under the call of July 31, 1890, and by purchase prior thereto, and had been duly stamped and cancelled, and having counted and examined the said bonds, your Committee did, on said day burn said bonds and the coupons thereto attached, in the presence of the Treasurer.

THOMAS G. HAYES,
Committee on the part of Senate.
JAMES G. BERRET,
PHILIP D. LAIRD,
Committee on the part of the House of Delegates.

Which was read and adopted.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates appeared and delivered the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
January 28th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your message proposing, with the concurrence of this Body, that the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate be authorized to make an appointment of a person as a watchman in the Annex to the State Capital, as well as watchman for the Committee rooms situated therein, and to perform such other duties as may be required by the Speaker and the President aforesaid, and we respectfully concur therein.

By order,
CARLTON SHAFER,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read.
