

CHAPTER 82.

AN ACT to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury. Passed April 6, 1853.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of October next, the fiscal year of the treasury of this State, in all matters of accounts, receipts, expenditures, estimates and appropriations, shall commence on the first day of October in each year, and the report and estimates required by the constitution to be prepared and delivered to the Legislature by the comptroller of the treasury department shall be a report and estimates for each fiscal year, commencing as aforesaid, and terminating on the thirtieth day of September in the succeeding calendar year. Fiscal year—when to commence.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the comptroller of the treasury department to submit to the Legislature, according to the requirements of the constitution, his annual report and estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year, commencing on the first day of October next, and terminating on the thirtieth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and so for each successive year thereafter. Duty of Comptroller.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the comptroller of the treasury department, in addition to the annual report required by the constitution, to submit to the Legislature, within ten days after the commencement of its next session, a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the treasury for the months of October and November next, after the passage of this act. Further duty of Comptroller.
