

I am one of my ancestors or my ancestor, both which I suppose it ought to have done, the Law in reason not obliging to Exhibit an answer from any person, without advisement, for if it be allowed in Cases of felony & murder may be well allowed in other Cases. And if this be an answer sufficient I must submit to your Worthy pleasure. As to the Complaint of the Orphans. I was allways willing to be shutt of it and now it willing to surrender the whole except my own which is the third of the whole I will now pay if two thirds if they give me bond to save me harmless from those that are under age. And which might have given my wife this whole estate, unless it had been excepted in the deed or Will in Law of the personall estate. For I cannot give away my Wife Estate, unless doing my self a manifest injury therefore your worship may use your pleasure. Laurence Crawford.

The Court having Considered the same do: upon the said Laurence's Submission commit the bond of the Orphans
And as to the Orphans bond Order the Court confirmed & continued
