The for the said Abraham & Dill being read it seemed good to the Justices that the tobacco declared was justly due. And therefor Order pass for the same in Off alias Excoutio

And for the said Matthew Gustaf of the said County of Somerset in Court sitting. The humble Petition of Elizabeth Wrenn-wrenn. humbly sheweth that the last Sabbath or Lord's day within night John Shrawbridge of said County then came to of B-lioner house your B-lioner's husband being at Wine, came, the said Shrawbridge in a most impudent and insolent manner, did assault & B-lioner, & by using an adulterous action on B-lioner to commit. And though the said Shrawbridge did use some violent means to B-lioner & otherwise of B-lioner yett B-lioner as God after many endeavors of B-lioner made her escape from her own house to the said B-lioner in a most strange and unchristian condition being much worn & abused and was left to the Spectators. Therefore of B-lioner humbly prays that the said Shrawbridge may appear before of Wrenn to answer of himself, with a summons for of B-lioner & as in only B-lioner of B-lioner shall pray for

That the said B-lioner in this case appearing with the said Wrenn who were examined the said Shrawbridge committing himself to the judgment of the Court. where Court did Order the said Shrawbridge to give bond for his good behavior to pay of of debt in this case or other.

Whereupon, came the said Shrawbridge & his brother Saml. Alexander & Edward Jones and the said Shrawbridge did confess himself to owe of B-lioner the sum of ten pounds Sterling & his brother in the sum of five pounds a piece his money due to be labored on their goods & Chattels Land & Movements for their debts as follows
