

Said Leonard has promised not to regard me but mind my & fraudulently intending that he should describe & pay me the said sum of four hundred & fifty pounds of tobacco, but hath hitherto refused, and doth still refuse to pay damages of 500 pounds of tobacco, and doth still refuse to pay. Alexander & Co. Esqrs. for the said Leonard.

It is not my ready promise to come to try all. Worthington Attorney for the said Leonard. This Court was granted writ of Habeas Corpus.

Narras: Williams. Esq. Somerset County. John: Deplow. Esq. late of Somerset County, Plaintiff was attached to answer unto the John: Deplow. Esq. Defendant. Williams, in an action of the Court. And whereupon the said Charles & Co. Esqrs.
Gave his Attorney Complaint that whereas the said John. the eighth day of May

In the year of our Lord 1692. at New York within the Jurisdiction of this Court was indebted unto the said Charles & Co. Esqrs. of four hundred & fifty pounds of tobacco being a certain quantity of tobacco paid by the said Charles & Co. unto John Wood. Esq. for for & upon the said John Wood as by a writ here in Court produced may appear & the said John to the said Charles & Co. in manner aforesaid being indebted, in consideration thereof did assume upon himself to the said Charles & Co. faithfully promise that he the said John. the said sum of four hundred & fifty pounds of tobacco when he should be thereunto requested would well & truly content and pay in work by detaching. Notwithstanding the said John. his promise & assumption aforesaid not regarding but mind my and fraudulently intending him the said Charles & Co. in this behalf craftily and subtly to describe & defraud of 450 pounds of tobacco as aforesaid the said Charles & Co. hath not paid, although the said John to do the same by the said Charles & Co. have been requested but hath hitherto refused & doth still refuse, to the damages of the said Charles & Co. of 500 pounds of tobacco. And whereupon he being thus sub. &c.

Gave & Co. Esqrs. for the said John.

The Defendants Attorney in Court in Open Court confessed judgment to the debt declared for. being made apparent by aforesaid John: Wood. and also for the Court grants Order for the forced debt & of alia Executio.

Cap. Jn. King Esq. for the said Lawrence: Crawford. Plaintiff was attached to answer unto the Lawrence: Crawford. Defendant. King and Co. Esqrs. Plaintiff. And whereupon the said John and Thomas & Co. Esqrs.
Gave his Attorney Complaint that whereas the said Lawrence in the year of our Lord 1692 at New York within the Jurisdiction of this Court became indebted unto the said John and Thomas & Co. Esqrs. in the sum of two hundred and eighty pounds of tobacco in cash for and on account of the said John and Thomas & Co. Esqrs. by a particular account doth appear. And the said Lawrence being indebted in manner & form as aforesaid did upon himself faithfully promise & assume that the said sum of 2428. lbs of tobacco he would well & truly content pay & satisfy unto the said John and Thomas & Co. Esqrs. when thereunto required. Notwithstanding his said promise & assumption of the said sum of 2428 lbs of tobacco hath not paid in the life time of the said John and Thomas & Co. Esqrs. the said sum of 2428 lbs of tobacco. for where they say they are damaged & that the damages be the value of 4500 lbs of tobacco & thereupon they being thus sub. &c.
