

cation in at least two daily papers published in Baltimore city, the following provisions shall thenceforth be severally in full force, and shall form part of the charter of said company:

Name changed
Corporate powers. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the name of the said corporation shall be changed to the Monumental Banking and Insurance Company of Baltimore; and by the said new name it shall have, exercise and possess all and singular the franchises, rights, corporate powers and duties heretofore appertaining to the corporation; and shall hold its property, and may convey the same, notwithstanding such change of name, and shall have all the rights and remedies, and be subject to all the liabilities of said corporation; and that all suits by and against said corporation may be proceeded with until final judgment and satisfaction under said former name.

Receive deposits. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said corporation shall, in addition to the powers now possessed by it, be capable in law to receive deposits of money with or without the allowance of interest to be agreed upon, and to deal in bullion, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, mortgages, securities and stocks, including its own capital stock; but it shall not have power to issue any note or other evidence to be used as currency.

Directors reduced. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the number of the directors to manage the affairs of the said corporation is hereby reduced from twelve to five.

Liability of stockholders. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That each stockholder shall be liable to the amount of his or her share or shares of stock for all the debts and liabilities of the said corporation, and its books, papers and accounts shall be open to inspection under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

What shall be evidence. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That a copy of the said resolution of acceptance, attested under the corporate seal of the corporation, shall be lodged with the Secretary of State within sixty days after the passage thereof, and a copy of the same duly attested by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of the State, shall be evidence in all courts of law or equity of the due acceptance of this act.

Effective. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

Approved May 31, 1882.
