

open to public inspection; he shall attest all laws or ordinances, and cause copies of the same to be posted in not less than two of the most public places in said town; he shall file and keep all original papers entrusted to his care; he shall act as treasurer to said corporation; he shall keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements of all moneys and funds of the said corporation in a well bound book, and shall pay out the same only on the order of the mayor after the bills thereupon or orders have been passed by the commissioners; he shall report annually in writing to the burgess and commissioners, a detailed statement of the financial condition of said corporation, showing the several sums of money received and expended, from whom received and for and on what account, and to whom expended and paid, and shall cause not less than two copies of said statement to be posted up in the two or more most public places in the town; he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for him by this act or the ordinances of said commissioners; he shall receive such compensation for his services from the funds of the corporation as said commissioners may by their order or ordinance fix; and the said commissioners shall require said clerk and treasurer to give bond, with security to be approved by the said burgess, for the faithful performance of his duties as such, which bond shall be made to the said corporation.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners may meet as often for the transaction of the business of said corporation as shall be required, for the transaction of such business, but not less frequently than once in every three months; the commissioners shall elect from among the said commissioners one of their number to act as chairman; they may pass such ordinances for the rules and regulations of their sessions and members, not inconsistent with this act.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall have power to enact and pass all laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of this State, of said county or this act, as they may deem wise and expedient, for the comfort, health, order, prosperity, peace and convenience of said town and the inhabitants thereof; to open and establish, curb,

File original
papers.

Post up statement.

Compensation

Business meeting.

Pass laws and ordinances.