

tion to, and take date from, the twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, the date of said original constitution.

§ 9. The governor shall have power to issue writs of election to supply vacancies in either house of the general assembly that have happened or may happen.

§ 10. It is declared that nothing in this amended constitution gives a writ of error from the court of errors and appeals to the court of oyer and terminer or court of general sessions of the peace and jail delivery, nor an appeal from the court of general sessions of the peace and jail delivery.

The acts of the general assembly, increasing the number of justices of the peace, shall remain in force until repealed by the general assembly; and no office shall be vacated by the amendment to this constitution, unless the same be expressly vacated thereby, or the vacating the same is necessary to give effect to the amendments.

Done in convention, the second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and of the independence of the United States of America, the fifty-sixth. In testimony whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names.
