

1 benefit of your comment.

2 DEAN FORDHAM: It would be my pleasure. I
3 appreciate your gracious remarks and have been delighted
4 to be here and have found it very stimulating to meet with
5 a committee dealing so thoughtfully with this important
6 problem.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I do want to express the appre-
8 ciation of all of us to Mrs. Fordham in coming down with 9 you and making you available to us and recognize her
10 presence.

11 I might also add I have the same feeling for 12 Mrs. Burdette in making the doctor available to us when 13 his office hasn't even seen him this week.

14 DEAN FORDHAM: He can put in the weekend in his 15 office.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: We, as practicing lawyers, do
17 that. Dean Fordham, we will feel free to contact you in 18 the future and once again we express our thanks for your
19 being present.

20 I only have one other matter, Dr. Loevy, before
21 you go. It is along the line of your request.
