

1 to have this simplified now also. I am speaking about the 2 alternative provision. Eliminate the attempt to define
3 the express grant but have the constitutional language
4 provide simply for a broad grant to the Legislature, which 5 then will do all these things that it has in fact done
6 under Article 23(a), to define into alternative language
7 the position of Mr. Melvin.

8 DR. LOEVY: This is what you mean by the second 9 alternative?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

11 DR. LOEVY: The third alternative is what John 12 proposed?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: That is right.

14 DR. LOEVY: Okay.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: I noticed he has been working on 16 some language that you might pick up from him. I am going 17 to more or less bring this meeting to a close without any 18 attempt to make any resolution of any further problems, 19 leaving them open for the next meeting. But I am going to 20 serve notice that we are going to bring to a head and come 21 to a final decision on our position with respect to one of
