

1 idea of the three-level court, making the People's Court
2 an addition of the Circuit Court? This has been done
3 in Illinois, apparently quite successfully.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: It was considered. In our 5 opinion, the four-level court system is better.

6 JUDGE FAIRBANKS: Is there any possibility we 7 can get a different name than People's Court? I know
8 that you have indicated it here. It seems to me there
9 ought to be someone with enough ingenuity in this group
10 to think of something other than the People's Court.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: That same sentiment was voiced 12 at the State Bar Association just this past weekend. The 13 State Bar Committee, I think, recommends that the names
14 of the fourth level of courts be called District Courts.
15 Our present thinking is that that could be confused or 16 confusing with the Federal District Courts. We don't have 17 any strong feeling about it. We have the same reservations
18 about using that name that you have mentioned. It is one
19 of the situations where a rose by any other name, I sup-20 pose, but if you can suggest some other name other than 21 People's Court or District Court, we would be glad to
