

1 you expect to result?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Just in the name, the District
3 Court.

4 JUDGE CURLEY: I could see if you have, let's 5 say, two courts in Maryland, that is, State courts, that 6 had the word District in each of their titles. To me, it
7 is almost farfetched to expect any conflict between a
8 Federal District Court and this kind of court.

9 MR. ENEY: There is conflict, in the newspaper
10 and the news media. They don't say District Court of the 11 United States for the District of Maryland. They say
12 District Court. You have States where you have this.
13 Texas is one. Judge Niles, you know of other States
14 where they have District Courts.

15 JUDGE NILES: Massachusetts has District Courts.

16 MR. ENEY: Many of them.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Another reason that we are 18 leading towards the name, People's Court, is that it has 19 achieved a certain acceptance in Maryland. There are a 20 number of courts, as you know, a number of counties which 21 use the name, and it is sort of identified with upgrading
