

1 Does anybody have any comments on that or 2 care to make any?

3 JUDGE BRUNE: I am in agreement with the 4 Committee's suggested name, in the interest of clarity,
5 while nonetheless shedding a tear.

6 JUDGE NILES: Mr. Chairman, may I ask Judge
7 Brune if he thinks that there is a good reason for not 8 saying Supreme Court in the way that I think it is forty-9 seven States do?

10 JUDGE BRUNE: Well, the answer to that, Judge
11 Niles, is quite simple. I think Supreme Court as applied 12 to a State tends to imply an exaggeration, less than 13 supreme under the present circumstances.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Let's move on to the second
15 section, which sets forth the judicial and composition
16 of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

17 You will notice that in the original second 18 tentative draft, the Supreme Court of Appeals was to have 19 appellate jurisdiction only, and then upon further reflec-
20 tion and considering the fact that the present Constitution
21 doesn't say what jurisdiction the Court of Appeals shall
