

1 have, we felt that it would be sufficient to just say
2 they will have such jurisdiction as may be provided by 3 law, and we anticipate that there will be attached to a
4 constitution to be voted on what they call a schedule,
5 which will maintain the present jurisdiction, statutory 6 jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals until and unless it
7 is changed by the Legislature.

8 MR. SYKES: Isn't the general tendency now to 9 give the appellate, the Supreme Court only appellate 10 jurisdiction? I have also in mind the problem where 11 you would give the Legislature presumably under the Con-
12 stitution power to cut off all jurisdiction from the 13 Court of Appeals. I think that the jurisdiction should 14 be appellate only and that the Legislature should be re-
15 quired by the Constitution to spell out that appellate 16 jurisdiction and to grant it. I would suggest that it 17 should read that the Supreme Court of Appeals shall have 18 an appellate jurisdiction, which shall be provided by law.

19 MR. MARTINEAU: I don't think that would be 20 required by the Legislature.

21 MR. SYKES: I think it would give the Supreme
