

1 draft should simply say, should have appellate jurisdic-
2 tion, without saying final.

3 MR. SYKES: Yes. That would prevent the 4 Legislature from completely drifting.

5 MR. MARTINEAU: I doubt it would. It wouldn't 6 be a grant of jurisdiction. It would be merely a limi-
7 tation.

8 MR. SYKES: No. The statement of the Constitu-
9 tion that the Appellate Court of Appeals, Supreme Court
10 of Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction is a man-
11 datory statement.

12 MR. MARTINEAU: Then all you have to do is 13 leave the jurisdiction in one case, one type of case, and 14 that wouldn't solve the problem.

15 MR. INVERNIZZI: At Atlantic City, the language
16 I noticed was the Supreme Court of Appeals shall have 17 appellate jurisdiction and such other jurisdiction as may 18 be provided by law.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct.

20 MR. ENEY: This brings to light the fact that 21 the reason for the provision for other jurisdiction is
