

: geographical consideration be given by the Legislature.

MR. ENEY: That is why I am asking you to look (b). That is exactly what it does.

JUDGE PROCTOR: What is done in New York and nois?

JUDGE CARTER: The answer is Yes. It is not than so many counties. There would have to be some ge. There is enough to meet the general theory.

JUDGE PROCTOR: What is done in Illinois and York?

THE CHAIRMAN: I frankly don't know. Do you

JUDGE CARTER: It seems to me that following ugh on this thinking that while there certainly ought : representation on the nominating committee on a wide basis, that there ought to be an area from which ppellate judge comes. There ought to be more than the same representation as would be for District Three
: the man is coming from District One, and One ought ve more voice from that than District Three.

MR. ENEY: You are talking about the nominating
