

1 committee?

2 JUDGE CARTER: Yes.

3 MR. ENEY: That is not covered by this Commis-
4 sion.

5 JUDGE BRUNE: Mr. Chairman, I don't like to 6 disagree with my good friend, Judge Carter, but one of the 7 virtues of this draft seems to me to be its departure 8 from any requirement for districting in connection with 9 the organization of the Court of Appeals. I should be 10 very reluctant to see the section amended in such a way as 11 to make any form of districting mandatory unless and un-
12 til there were a change in the constitutional proceedings.
13 It is possible that the suggestion such as Judge Oppenheimer
14 made might meet the objections which Judge Carter has 15 raised, and it might meet my personal distaste for insis-
16 tence upon local districts.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: Judge Carter, I have here a statis-
18 tical summary prepared for the conference of chief justices,
19 prepared by the council of State governments, which lists
20 the States and the makeup of their highest court and lists
21 those which have requirements for districting, selection,
