

1 jurisdiction may ultimately be, they didn't feel justified
2 in fixing the maximum number of judges on the court.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think we have given any 4 thought to that.

5 MR. MARTINEAU: We won't want to, I don't 6 think.

7 JUDGE PROCTOR: This intermediate court is 8 supposed to soak up a lot of that.

9 MR. MARTINEAU: We want to make this appeal
10 to the Legislature.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Carter, do you feel there
12 should be a maximum number stated?

13 JUDGE CARTER: I don't have any strong feeling 14 about this one. That is just a thought that occurred to 15 me.

16 JUDGE CLAPP: I have a question. This occurred
17 to me in reading it. It is your grant of jurisdiction,
18 in both the Supreme Court of Appeals and Appellate Court
19 as compared to the grant in connection with the Circuit
20 Court and People's Court. You have in the Circuit Court 21 grant of original jurisdiction in all cases except where
