

1 from doing it?

2 MR. RODOMSKY: If you put it in the People's 3 Court under this draft, there is provision that the 4 exclusive jurisdiction of the People's Court has to be 5 uniform statewide. As I say, I am still not sure that 6 would do it because if only part of it were put exclusive-
7 ly in the People's Court, you could still have a splitting,
8 I would think.

9 JUDGE RASIN: If your philosophy is what you
10 say it is, Mr. Chairman, then why haven't you merely 11 provided for a judiciary article which says that there
12 shall be such courts of this State with such jurisdiction
13 as the Legislature may establish, and stop there?

14 MR. ENEY: We did consider that.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: That is the way the Federal 16 Constitution is.

17 JUDGE RASIN: That is right.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: It is a matter of where you
19 are going to draw the line. I don't think anybody, or 20 very few on the entire Commission would be in favor of 21 not going any further than that, but as Vernon has said,
