

1       politan areas, they go to the People's Court but in the rural 2       areas they go to the Circuit Court?

3               JUDGE FAIRBANKS: I think that is right,
4       Judge Proctor.

5               MR. INVERNIZZI: I don't see, really, any 6       purpose other than probably steering cases from one court
7       to another court. These courts are supposed to be at the 8       level contemplated. I think the monetary jurisdiction,
9       though concurrent, should be the same.

10              JUDGE FAIRBANKS: It should be uniform.

11              MRS. BOTHE: I was interested in Paul Schlitz's
12       question at the beginning of this discussion, asking us
13       whether we considered it a three court, three-tier system
14       with the People's Court and Circuit Court jurisdiction
15       combined. I may have missed the meeting. I don't remem-
16       ber when we did consider it particularly. I wondered 17       if he would comment a little further on why he thought that 18       might be something we should have considered more thorough-19       ly.

20              MR. SCHLITZ: Well, it seems to me that this 21       is the weak link in the plan here. You are giving the
