

1 Court judge could be sitting on the Supreme Appellate
2 Court.

3 MR. ENEY: He could be theoretically.

4 JUDGE JONES: It is written in here.

5 MR. ENEY: No. It gives the power to the
6 chief judge.

7 JUDGE JONES: Chief Justice of the Supreme
8 Court of Appeals shall have the power to assign temporarily
9 any justice or judge of the City to sit in any court of 10 the State.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: That is right.

12 MR. ENEY: Has the power.

13 JUDGE JONES: So that the People's Court judge
14 could sit on the Supreme Appellate Court. Is that the 15 judgment of this Commission?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: We don't think that that is like-
17 ly to happen.

18 JUDGE JONES: I am not discussing whether it
19 is likely to happen. I am asking if it is the judgment
20 of the Commission that it is wise to put that in the Con-
21 stitution.
