

1 MR. SCANLAN: If there is substantial sentiment,
2 restrictions of this sort aren't necessary and the Legis-
3 lature can be trusted, let's have the advantage of that 4 sentiment rather than wrestling around with language.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: We are not suggesting referring 6 the language back; we are suggesting referring the 7 principle back to the Committee for further study.

8 MR. SCANLAN: We still don't have the general
9 feeling of the Commission.

10 MRS. BOTHE: As one of the people who brought it 11 up, I would much rather the Committee came back with 12 something more concrete.

13 MR. MILLER: As a member of the Committee, I
14 would like to know, Dr. Jenkins' proposal would cure the 15 objections that Mr. Case had.

16 MR. CASE: They certainly would on the specific 17 example I gave with reference to the appointment of a
18 member of the Legislative, the salary of which was later
19 increased; but as to the other, I think there is a philos-
20 ophy here which needs some real in depth thinking, and 21 I have particular reference to the idea of (a) whether
