

1 trust our Legislature that we are going to try to have a
2 modern State government that can keep abreast with the 3 problems of the Twentieth Century, and I don't know in 4 how many cases you can legislate intelligently, unless 5 you legislate intelligently and get the facts and if 6 you don't have power to compel witnesses to testify in 7 certain situations, you are not going to get the facts;
8 and we should not tie the hands of the Legislature by 9 denying the power that they sometimes investigate
10 promiscuously on some Federal administrative agencies.
11 I would like the Legislature to do its job, and if it
12 doesn't have the subpoena power, it can't do its job.
13 But to deny them the power altogether, it seems to me
14 to be denying them in part at least, the power to 15 function as a modern legislature.

16 MR. CASE: The difficulty I have with this whole
17 discussion is that if this clause which has been evaded
18 here has been removed, then it seems to me that the Legis-
19 lature has complete subpoena power to do all these 20 things because all of the power is in the Legislature.
21 As we have often said, the State Constitution does not
