

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion? Mr.
2 Scanlan, you may close.

3 MR. SCANLAN: I would just like to say in answer
4 to Mr. Case's remarks, that at least in my mind, they 5 confirm what I think is the case. Not only Subsection 6, 6 pardon the pun, Dick, not only Subsection 6 but the 7 previous Section, that those Sections are based basically
8 on a distrust, a skepticism about the legislative pro-
9 cess, and you just can't pin it on the leaders. Whoever 10 the leaders are, they are the people elected by the, or 11 the representatives of the people to be leaders, and 12 purportedly they represent the membership, and I don't 13 think that tying the hands of the Legislature to the 14 extent that has been done in this provision, this Sub-
15 section and in some of the others for future generations,
16 based on what is concededly an innovation, favored
17 primarily by the budget people, who as Mr. Case says,
18 always come out with, quote, well thought out, close quote,
19 budgets, I have known of budget people and executives that 20 have come out with, quote, not well thought out, unquote,
21 budget programs, but I think I am repeating myself when I
