

1 since these boards, agencies, et cetera, are the creatures
2 of the General Assembly and are maintained through the
3 appropriations by the General Assembly, would this not
4 be an inherent right of the General Assembly to call them?
5 Is it necessary to have this, even though it is in the 6 old Constitution? Wouldn't these people be forced to 7 come anyway?

8 MR. CASE: They might or they might not. Cer-
9 tainly, they should have the right to appear, which the
10 second part of the Section does, and that is not implicit
11 in anything that we have unless it is given expressly
12 in the Constitution.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Clagett?

14 MR. CLAGETT: I can't disqualify the Governor
15 from being a person, and the head of a branch, in the 16 second line of that Subsection.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: In other words, you are afraid
18 the language is susceptible of including the Governor?

19 MR. CLAGETT: Exactly.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Case?

21 MR. CASE: I think that that argument, of course,
