

THE CHAIRMAN: To prepare for, so that you would strike out the words, proposals to lay before, and insert the word, for.

Any objection? If not, we will do that.

MR. GENTRY: Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gentry.

MR. GENTRY: I have a clean-up change on Page 2, three-fifths of the members of each House should be in there, I think.

THE CHAIRMAN: I would take it, and I make this statement for the benefit of the Committee on Style, that the first three lines of Section 2 would have to be rephrased to conform to the language that you have used in other cases, to make it clear that you are talking about three-fifths of the elected members and you don't refer to record vote, is that correct, Dr. Burdette?

DR. BURDETTE: I think that is right.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions? Mr. Sayre.

MR. SAYRE: Did the Committee give any consideration as to whether an amendment, the voting upon an amendment would be done by three-fifths of the two Houses
