

1 MR. CASE: Yes.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the
3 question? The question is on the motion that any law 4 shall not be subject to -- subject to referendum shall 5 not be delayed in taking effect if it is passed by three-
6 fifths vote, but if passed by less than a three-fifths
7 vote might be. Are you ready for the question?

8 DR. JENKINS: Question.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Those in favor signify by 10 saying aye, opposed, no. The ayes have it. I think it
11 would be well to take a record vote; a show of hands
12 on aye. 17 to 5.

13 MR. MILLER: One parliamentary question, Mr.
14 Chairman, in connection with that and that is are we 15 going to provide that all laws passed by the General
16 Assembly will require a record vote? So many laws
17 are passed and never questioned. How are you going 18 to know whether it is three-fifths vote?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: I would assume the Committee
20 in meeting this test would so draft it that it would be 21 passed in such a way that there could be no mistaking
