

CHAP. 628.

and shall dispose of the same in such manner as will be most convenient and best for the public benefit; and all bills for contracts and for labor and material supplied in the roads shall be sworn to and approved by the supervisor before payment by the County Commissioners.

Roads to be divided into sections, etc.

116. Each road supervisor shall divide the roads of his district into convenient sections and number them, and if desirable, make sub-divisions of his district, and he shall keep an account of all work and other transactions pertaining to the roads in his district, showing the kind and quality of the work done on each section of road, by whom the work was done and the cost of the same, which shall be returned monthly to the County Commissioners, who shall keep a record of the same, to be at all times open for public inspection.

Record books
to be kept.

117. The County Commissioners shall keep a record book for each district, in which shall be recorded all the roads and bridges of the district, and all surveys and other proceedings which may be had in reference to any road or bridge in that district, the cost of procuring such books to be paid for out of the general road fund.

Authority to take charge
of all roads
and bridges,
etc.

118. The road supervisors herein provided for shall take charge of all the roads and bridges in their respective districts, and shall see that no obstructions, hinderance or injury is permitted upon any road or bridge under their supervision, and when any road or bridge shall form the boundary between districts, the County Commissioners shall assign to each district its portion of said road or bridge; any person placing obstructions of any kind whatsoever on the public road or in any side ditches thereof, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars and cost for each and every offense, which shall be imposed by any justice of the peace of the district within which said offense shall be committed, upon the complaint of the road supervisors having charge of said road; provided, said person having been notified to remove said obstruction by the road supervisor shall fail to do so within two days after notification; and provided further, that the person so placing said obstruction on the public roads, or in the side ditches, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each day that he permits said obstruction to remain, the said fine to be in addition to the original fine of five dollars, after the expiration of said two days, to be imposed by said justice in like manner as said original fine, said fine to be paid by the justice to the County Commissioners of Wicomico County and placed by them to the credit of the district in which it has been imposed; said fine to be enforceable as other fines imposed by justice of the peace in case of misdemeanors.
