

manufactures and traffic in offensive fertilizers or other commodities, and to prohibit hog-pens and slaughter-houses within the town limits; to control, by ordinance, the mode of constructing privies and sinks, and the manner of disposing of offal and waste products, and in general to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper, necessary and beneficial to the town; and for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers, and for preservation of the cleanliness, health, peace and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens, and to suppress, abate or discontinue, or cause to be suppressed, abated or discontinued, all nuisances within the corporate limits of said town, they may pass all ordinances or by-laws from time to time necessary; and to insure the observation of such ordinance, in addition to the action of debt or such other civil remedies as may exist in such case by law for the recovery of the penalties thereunto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines, not exceeding fifty dollars in any case, as to them may appear right, and in default of the payment of any fine imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offenders for a period not exceeding thirty days or until the fine is paid; provided, that no ordinance shall be adopted, except by ye and nay vote, and the names of the members of the council voting for and against the same shall be entered in the minutes.

May pass
ordinances.

14. The council may, whenever they think the public interest requires it, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town, subject to assessment for county or State taxes, and they may prescribe the manner in which such assessment shall be made, and provide for adjusting all differences in relation to such assessment, and to do all other things necessary for making such assessment; provided, such assessment shall not exceed the assessment for State and county purposes; and the council may levy a tax not exceeding in any one year seventy-five cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of assessable property.

Assessment
of property.

17. The bailiff shall, within sixty days after the receipt of such list and warrant, render to each person named therein an account of the taxes due by such person; and if he cannot render to any person such account by reason of his non-residence or otherwise during said time, he shall at the expiration of said sixty days publish in some newspaper published in the county where the property lies, a list of all taxes in default once in each successive week for three weeks, giving notice to

Duty of bailiff.