

between the points authorized by this Act, and where the consent of the owners of such ground or property can not be obtained, shall have and may exercise in its discretion the right and power of condemnation, as provided in the Code of Public General Laws, article 23, title "Corporations," sub-title "Railroad Companies," and to buy, lease, sell to or consolidate with any other railroad or railway, and to connect or enter into traffic agreement with any other railroad or railway.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the president and directors of said company may borrow from time to time for the corporate purpose of said company such amounts of money as they may deem proper, and provide for the payment of the sum and interest thereon by the issue of bonds in such amounts as the board of directors may deem necessary for the purpose of said railway and its extension, and to secure the payment of the same by a mortgage of all or any part of the property, rights, franchises, tolls and revenues of said company.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1908.

CHAPTER 436.

AN ACT for the payment of a sum of money to David N. Henning, of Carroll county, State of Maryland, for prosecuting in the Circuit Court for Carroll county and in the Court of Appeals of Maryland, on the part of the State of Maryland, reported in vol. 84, page 67 of the Maryland Reports.

Whereas David N. Henning assisted the State of Maryland in prosecuting the State of Maryland against Daniel H. Lynn, in the Circuit Court of Carroll county, and upon conviction of said Lynn and an appeal by him to the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the said David N. Henning, by authority of Harry M. Clabaugh, then Attorney General, who was disqualified to try the said case, prepared and argued said case in the Court of Appeals of Maryland, which was decided in favor of the said State of Maryland with costs, to be paid to the said State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the State of Maryland be and he is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer of the State of Maryland for the sum of one hundred dollars, in favor of David N. Henning in compensation in full for his services in the trials of the State of Maryland against said Daniel H. Lynn.