

such provision for the aid of Joanna Braden, widow of James T. Braden, who was a fireman in the fire department of said city and who was killed while in the discharge of his duty as such fireman, and for the infant child of said deceased, as to the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may seem proper, such aid not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) per annum for said widow and child.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1908.

CHAPTER 465.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section four (4) of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1807, chapter one hundred and ten (110), entitled An Act to incorporate the contributors to the Baltimore General Dispensary and to add an additional section thereto, to be known as section eight (8).

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section four (4) of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its November session in the year 1807, known as chapter number one hundred and ten (110), and entitled An Act to incorporate the contributors to the Baltimore General Dispensary, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, as follows:

SEC 4. Be it enacted, That any male person who shall have contributed as much as five dollars to the use of the corporation during the year preceding an election, shall be eligible to election that year as a manager, and any male person who hath at any time contributed, or who shall hereafter contribute the sum of fifty dollars cash, or shall have served for a period of five years continuously as a manager to the said institution shall be considered, and he is hereby declared to be, during life, a contributor, and as such, together with the individual members of the board of managers, shall be those only entitled to vote at all annual elections for managers to the said General Dispensary; to recommend indigent poor to the care of the institution, and to enjoy all other rights and privileges to which contributors are or shall be entitled under this Act, and under such by-laws as the managers may from time to time make or establish.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said institution shall not be required to keep open for the treatment of diseases or the