

In force.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

CHAPTER 146.

Passed Feb.
24, 1864.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and twenty-four of Article twenty-one of the Public Local Laws relating to the town of Hagerstown, in Washington county, and to re-enact the same, with an amendment authorizing the Mayor and Council to light up the streets of said town.

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and twenty-four of Article twenty-one of the Public Local Laws be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof: The Mayor and Council may direct and provide for leveling and paving the streets, alleys, footways and lanes in said town, or any of them; may grade the same and direct repairs upon them when they think proper; may cause bridges or culverts to be made over the waters or hollows; may contract with the citizens of the town for paving the streets, alleys and lanes in such manner as they may by ordinance direct; may erect lamps in any of the streets of said town; cause the same to be lighted at the expense of the town; may levy upon the taxable property in said town an amount sufficient to defray the expenses attending the same, which taxes may be collected as other taxes are provided for in section one hundred and thirty-six of this Article.

In force.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.