

registration of any motor vehicle which is so constructed as to be, when in operation, a menace to the safety of its occupants, or to the public.

Whenever any person licensed to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways of this State shall have been convicted of any violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, said Commissioner may, in his discretion, suspend or revoke the operator's license of such person, and upon a third conviction within a period of twelve calendar months, said person shall, in addition to the penalties for such offense, incur a forfeiture of his operator's license, and the said Commissioner shall thereupon revoke and require a return of the same. No person shall for the period of three months from the date of the revocation of his operator's license, be capable of receiving a new operator's license, nor thereafter except in the discretion of the Commissioner.

Any person whose license to operate a motor vehicle in this State has been refused, suspended or revoked as aforesaid, or who shall operate a motor vehicle the registration of which has been revoked as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject upon conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each first offense.

Non-Resident Owners and Operators.

146. Any person or operator not a resident of this State, who shall have complied with the laws of the State in which he resides, requiring the registration of motor vehicles, or licensing of operators thereof, and the display of identification or registration numbers on such vehicles and who shall cause the identification number of such state, in accordance with the laws thereof, and none other, together with the initial letter or letters of said state to be displayed on his motor vehicle as in this sub-title provided, while used or operated upon the public highways of this State, may use the highways of this State without obtaining a registration certificate or operator's license from the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles as hereinbefore prescribed; provided the state of which he is a resident and the registration certificate of which he displays, shall extend the same privilege to residents of this State; provided that if any non-resident be convicted of violating any provisions of this sub-title, he shall thereafter be subject to and required to comply with all the provisions of this sub-title
