

sirable in order to secure its bonds, or in the absolute discretion of the governing body of the municipality tend to make the bonds more marketable, notwithstanding that such covenants, acts or things may not be enumerated herein; it being the intention hereof to give the municipality power to do all things in the issuance of bonds and for their security that may be consistent with the Constitution of Maryland.

64J All of the bonds issued and sold pursuant to any of the provisions of this Act shall be and remain the direct, valid and binding obligation of the municipality, issued upon its full faith and credit, and the municipality shall levy a tax upon all the assessable property within its limits sufficient to pay the principal and interest on any of such bonds as the same shall mature, in each and every year that any of said bonds are outstanding, provided, however, that the amount of said tax so to be levied in any one year may be reduced by the amount of any such special assessments collected by the municipality from said public works projects and pledged by the municipality for the payment of the bonds so issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 64B, sub-section (d) of this Act.

Any holder of the bonds of the municipality issued pursuant to this Act, shall have the right, subject to any contractual limitations binding upon such holder, and subject to the prior rights of others, by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity, to enforce his rights against the municipality, and the governing body of the municipality and any officer, agent or employee of the municipality, including the right to require the municipality and the governing body and any proper officer, agent or employee of the municipality to assess, levy and collect taxes and special assessments adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of such special assessments, and to require the municipality and the governing body of the municipality and any officer, agent or employee of the municipality to carry out any other covenants and agreements and to perform its and their duties under this Act.

64K. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and bonds, interim certificates or other obligations may be issued hereunder for any project notwithstanding that any other law may provide for the issuance