

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 229 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title "Primary Elections", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

229. (1) Political parties which at the general election held on November 2nd, 1909, in the State of Maryland, or which at any future general election next preceding any primary election to be held hereunder, as shall have polled ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in the State at such or any such general election, shall hereafter nominate all their candidates for public office in and for Baltimore City, and the several counties of the State and for Judges and for the House of Representatives of the Federal Congress, and shall elect all delegates to county, legislative district, Congressional, City and State conventions, and all members of managing bodies in said political parties, in and for Baltimore City and the several counties of the State, and all precinct, ward, city and county executive or executive committees, whenever the political party usage provides for such executive committees, or any of the same, by means of primary elections conducted under and in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title and not otherwise, except as herein specifically provided, and the several boards of supervisors of elections shall not print on the official ballot to be voted at any general or special election to be hereafter held the name or names of any such candidate or candidates for election in Baltimore City or any of the counties of the State of any of said parties who shall not be so nominated and whose nomination shall not be certified to them or to the Secretary of State as having been so nominated.

(2) No person, other than as candidate for Judge, shall be a candidate for the nomination by more than one political party for any public office in Maryland or for the House of Representatives of the Federal Congress, United States Senator or President of the United States.

(3) All such candidates for such office, and all such delegates, managing bodies, executives and executive committees shall be nominated, selected and chosen by the direct vote of the duly registered voters belonging to or acting with such parties, respectively, in every precinct, ward, councilmanic, legislative, Congressional, judicial or other election district in Baltimore City, and also in the several counties of the State of Maryland, respectively, and in each and every election precinct and election district of each of said counties of the State of Maryland, respectively, it being the intent and pur-
