

INDEX.

1842

	Chap.	Sec.
although it may not pursue the precise directions of the act, &c.	"	5
One commissioner may execute commission, &c.	"	6
County courts to exercise the powers conferred by this act, &c.	"	7
CHANEY W.M.— See Register Land Office, W. Shore.
CHANNING LITERARY INSTITUTE—Incorporated.	9
CHARLES COUNTY—Com. of, on application of any overseers of public roads to apportion among said roads the able bodied males near to any road, &c.	141
CHARLES & PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTIES—The act of 1829, chap. 129, to encourage the destruction of crows in, repealed.	128
CHARLES & SOMERSET COUNTIES—The several acts of assembly requiring executors, administrators, trustees, sheriffs, ex-sheriffs, coroners and constables to give public notice in the newspapers, repealed so far as the same relates to.	123	1
Executors, &c. may exercise discretionary powers either by public printing or notice put up at court-house door, &c.	"	2
Inconsistent laws repealed.	"	3
CHESAPEAKE & OHIO CANAL CO.— See Internal Improvement Companies.
CHESAPEAKE BANK—Capital stock reduced and limited to $350,000, &c.
Bonus payable on said amount, &c.	"	2
Not released from payment of school fund imposed by original charter, &c.	"	3
Bonus now due upon actual capital paid in, at the rate prescribed by second section of the act not released, &c.	"	4
Act not to take effect until each of said banks have filed in the Treasury, &c.	"	5
On failure to redeem notes in specie on demand, this act void, legislature may repeal charter.	"	6
CHESAPEAKE BAY— See Fish, Herring and Shad Fisheries.
CHESTERVILLE—Swine prevented from running at large in, &c.	260
CHOPTANK RIVER—A supplement to the act to authorize the building of a bridge over, &c.	145	