

CHAPTER 257.

CHAP. 259

An act to continue in force such acts of Assembly as would expire during the present session. Passed March 8, 1845.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Acts re-enacted.
That all such acts or parts of acts, as would expire with the present session of the General Assembly, be and the same are hereby re-enacted and continued in force to the last Monday of December next, and to the end of the session of the General Assembly next ensuing; provided however, that this act shall not extend to or embrace any acts or parts of acts, which may have been or shall be repealed, or in anywise modified at the present session of the General Assembly. Proviso.

CHAPTER 258.

An act making additional provision for the Crier of Washington County Court. Passed March 8, 1845.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Crier in addition to his fees receive same per diem as bailiff.
That the crier of Washington county court, shall in addition to his fees, as are now allowed by law, receive a per diem allowance of the same amount as the bailiff of Washington county court; which said per diem shall be allowed for every day the court sits, either for the dispatch of business of the county, or removed cases from other counties, civil or criminal, which said allowance shall be levied and paid in all respects as is the allowance of the bailiff and other expenses of said court.

CHAPTER 259.

An act to enable James Powell, former Sheriff of Worcester County, to make a special return. Passed March 8, 1845.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Make special return.
That James Powell, formerly a sheriff of Worcester county, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to make his special return, and file it with the clerk of Worcester county court, in the case of Richard S. Tilghman, and Julia his wife, vs. George Sampson, number thirty-