

fty-five dollars on each county for the purpose of replacing the Governor's Bridge, which was carried away by the flood in October last.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That John T. Hodges, of Anne Arundel county, and William E. Peach, of Prince George's county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to contract for replacing said bridge, and that they be allowed two dollars for every day they are employed in the performance of this duty.

CHAPTER 105.

An act to lay out and open a road from Owen Cecil's, to Elk Ridge Landing, in Anne Arundel county. Passed Jan. 11, 1848.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, by sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, that it would be of great advantage to them and the public in general, to have a road laid out, leading from Owen Cecil's, in Anne Arundel county, to Elk Ridge Landing—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Andrew J. Phelps, William Gardner and Thomas W. Cole, of Anne Arundel county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey, lay out and open a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, following as far as may be convenient the present site of the road commonly called the Ridge road, from Owen Cecil's in said county to Elk Ridge Landing, and the said commissioners shall make out a plat of the said road, and return the same to the clerk of Anne Arundel county court, to be recorded among the records of said county, and the said road, when so opened, shall be hereafter deemed to be a public road forever, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as other public roads are directed to be kept in said county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the expenses of surveying and opening said road shall be levied and paid by the commissioners of Anne Arundel county, as other county charges are levied and paid, upon receiving from said commissioners an account on oath of the said expenses, including an allowance of two dollars per day to the commissioners appointed by this act.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Louis Ridgely and John Glenn, administrators of the estate of Owen Cecil, deceased, do hereby certify that the above described road is the same as that shown on the plat of the said road, and that the same is the property of the said Owen Cecil, deceased.
