

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

CHAPTER 107.

CHAP. 108.

An act to allow Israel Norris, late collector of State taxes in Carroll county, further time to complete his collections. Passed Feb. 11, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Israel Norris, former collector of the State taxes in Carroll county, be and he is hereby authorised to collect all taxes or balances of taxes due to him and now remaining unpaid, for the year in which he was collector as aforesaid in said county, in the same manner, and with the same privileges and powers he could or might have done within the time limited by law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Israel Norris, before he proceeds to collect under and by virtue of this act, shall make out and deliver to the person or persons from whom any taxes or balances may be demanded, an account of the taxes or balances of taxes due from such person or persons, and if the amount claimed be disputed by the party, shall annex an affidavit that the same is due and unpaid.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage, and continue in force until the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty.

CHAPTER 108.

An act to authorise the administrators of David Ridgley, deceased, and the guardians of his infant children, to make certain improvements on his real estate, under the direction of the orphans court of Baltimore city and county. Passed Feb. 2, 1848.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, that David Ridgley, late of Baltimore city, deceased, left a large real estate situated in Baltimore county, which descended to his three infant children; and whereas, it is also represented, the barn and dwelling house on said land have been both burned since the death of the said D. Ridgley, and the said real estate rendered thereby of less value—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Louisa Ridgley and John Glenn, administrators
