

Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Carroll County", sub-title "Taneytown", as said section was amended by Chapter 550 of the Acts of 1943, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

417. The said The Mayor and City Council of Taneytown shall cause to be made an assessment, from time to time, of all assessable property, real, personal and mixed, within the limits of said town and shall levy a tax upon all such property not to exceed in any one year ~~seventy-five~~ ninety cents on one hundred dollars in any one year in addition to any special levies now required to be made by law, and the said The Mayor and City Council of Taneytown may borrow such sum or sums of money, not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars as may be necessary for corporate purposes provided the aggregate principal indebtedness of said municipality shall not at any time be in excess of said thirty-five thousand dollars, which debt shall be paid as the collection of taxes succeeding such borrowings will permit. THE FOREGOING LIMITATION UPON THE TAX LEVY SHALL HAVE NO APPLICATION TO ANY TAX LAID FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON ANY OUTSTANDING BONDS OF THE TOWN, WHETHER ISSUED BEFORE OR AFTER THE PASSAGE OF THIS LAW.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the effectiveness of this Act shall be subject to the requirement of Section 5 of Article 11E of the Constitution of Maryland that no such local law shall become effective in regard to a municipal corporation until and unless it shall have been approved at a regular or special municipal election by a majority of the voters of that municipal corporation voting on the question.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 24, 1955.
