

of the State and Baltimore City, the Comptroller shall first pay out of such revenues the sums required to be paid by Section 2 of article 22 and thereafter the balance of such revenue shall be divided, allocated and paid to the several counties and Baltimore City as hereinbefore provided; except that no funds shall be divided among, allocated or paid to any of the several counties of the State or to the City of Baltimore as aforesaid unless it shall have levied, in its current fiscal year, taxes sufficient to collect a minimum of one dollar per capita in revenue and unless it shall have certified a copy of said levy to the State Comptroller; and provided further, that any moneys otherwise distributable as hereinbefore provided, which shall not be distributed at the close of the fiscal year of any such county or the city of Baltimore because of failure of any county or the city of Baltimore to make such levy and certification, shall revert to the General Fund of the State Treasury. Per capita revenue shall be computed for purposes of this subsection by using the population figures furnished by the latest federal census or by an official local census, whichever is latest.

(D) Provided, however, that, notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, the Comptroller shall not divide, allocate and pay to the several counties of the State and to Baltimore City any portion of the (1) revenues or license fees arising out of any days of racing in excess of thirty-three (33) at any one track during any one year, collected by the Maryland Racing Commission from each licensee licensed under Section 7 of this Article; (2) revenues arising out of any days of racing in excess of ten (10) at any one track during any one year collected by the Maryland Racing Commission from each licensee licensed under Section 15 of this Article; (3) revenues or license fees arising out of any days of racing in excess of twenty (20) at any one track during any one year collected by the Maryland Racing Commission from each licensee licensed under Section 17 of this Article. All such revenues and license fees paid over to the Comptroller of the Treasury shall be allocated and credited to the general funds of the State alone.
