revenue projects described in the Trust Agreement. The Commission is hereby authorized to enter into a Supplemental Agreement with the Trustee, supplemental to the Trust Agreement, and shall determine thereby for what period or periods of time the said tolls and revenues from the new bridge shall be paid over to the Trustee as aforesaid, and when such determination shall have been made by the Commission and incorporated in such Supplemental Agreement such determination shall not be changed by the Commission or by the State of Maryland or any agency or instrumentality thereof, but shall continue in accordance with the provisions of such Supplemental Agreement. Such Supplemental Agreement, if entered into, shall provide, among other matters, (a) for the payment of the tolls and revenues from the bridge to be constructed under the provisions of this subtitle to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement as hereinbefore provided, (b) for setting forth the determination of the Commission as to the period or periods during which such payment shall be made, and (c) for directing the Trustee in the collection, holding and disbursements of the toll revenues so to be paid over to it. And whenever it shall happen that under the terms of such Supplemental Agreement it is not necessary that the Commission pay such tolls and revenues from the above-mentioned bridge to the Trustee as aforesaid, then such tolls and revenues shall be paid into the Revenue Fund account of the said Commission with reference to such new bridge and the tolls shall remain in effect for such bridge and shall continue to be collected by the Commission and disbursed by it in accordance with the provisions of the resolution or trust agreement authorized by Section 126H of this subtitle and as provided by law.

126H. (Trust Agreement). In the discretion of the Commission any bonds issued under the provisions of this subtitle may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the Commission and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the State. Such trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may pledge or assign the tolls and other revenues to be received, but shall not convey or mortgage the Expressway or any part thereof. Such trust agreement or such resolution may contain an appropriate reference to the agreement supplemental to the Trust Agreement, dated as of October 1, 1954, between the Commission and the Fidelity-Baltimore National Bank & Trust Company as hereinbefore provided for in Section 126A of this subdivision as amended and may provide that any such pledge or assignment of the tolls and revenues shall be subject to the provisions of the Supplemental Agreement with respect to the assignment of the tolls and revenues from the bridge to be constructed under the provisions of this subtitle to said Fidelity-Baltimore National Bank & Trust Company, Trustee under said Trust Agreement, dated as of October 1, 1954. Such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the Commission in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operations and insurance of the Expressway, the rates of toll to be charged, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the State which may act as depositary of the proceeds
