

but which, if hereafter returned, I purpose, without objection of your honorable House, to hand over as they arrive, to the appropriate committee, together with such answers as may be drawn from any other like institutions the honorable committee may direct to be addressed.

As some of the answers returned by the banks, refer to their annual reports of their condition, of which copies are called for by your order of the 22d, I ask leave to obey the said last order also, by furnishing as I do, in company with the answers aforesaid, copies of such as have come to me.

Most respectfully,

Your obd't serv't,

GEORGE MACKUBIN,

Treasurer W. S. Md.

Which was read, and

On motion of Mr. Graves, it was referred to a committee of seven;

Whereupon the Speaker appointed Messrs. Graves, Owens, Cottman, Stansbury, Coad, Cameron, and England said committee.

The house then took up for consideration bills in order entitled to a second reading.

The first bill in order is the bill entitled, an act to divorce Lucinda Massey from her husband Thomas Massey;

Read the second time, and

On motion of Mr. Sutton,

Ordered to lie on the table.

The next bill in order is the bill entitled, an act to divorce Sannah Jones from her husband John Jones a mensa et thora;

Read the second time.

Mr. Seidenstricker moved to amend the said bill by striking out the words "a mensa et thora" and inserting the words "a vinculo matrimonii."

On the question being put, will the house agree to strike out and insert?

Determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurred on the passage of the bill as amended, and being put, said bill was passed.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The house then took up for consideration the bill entitled, an act to divorce Lucinda Massey from her husband Thomas Massey;

Read the second time and will pass.

Messrs. Graves and Ridgely, the committee on the part of the House of Delegates to join the committee on the part of the Senate, report that upon the examination of the ballot boxes, it appeared that there were 69 votes given in all; of which,

For the Mechanics' Bank—James Willson, of Howard street, received 46 votes and Samuel Lucas 38.

For the Farmers Bank of Bank of Maryland—Robert Welch of
