

entitled, an act for the election of the Commissioners of Tax of Carroll county by the people;

Which was read the second time.

On motion of Mr Legrand,

The House was called, and the door-keeper sent for the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Sutton,

The House proceeded with the ordinary business of the session.

The House then took up for consideration, the bill entitled, an act, to divorce Patrick M'Nally from his wife, Mary M'Nally, the second bill in order entitled to a second reading;

Which was read the second time, and will pass.

Also, the bill entitled an act to divorce Mary Ann Sherer from her husband, David N. Sherer, the third bill entitled to a second reading;

Which was read the second time.

But before the question was taken upon its passage, the door-keeper returned, and reported, that he had notified the absent members that their attendance was required in the House.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill to provide for the election of the commissioners of tax of Carroll county, by the people, being the bill reported by Mr. Parke, from the majority of the committee on that subject.

Mr. Hook moved as a substitute for said bill, the bill reported by him, to provide for the election of the commissioners of tax, of Carroll county, by the people; each election district to elect one commissioner: being the report of the minority of the committee on that subject;

Read the second time.

The question was then put on the adoption of the said substitute for the bill as reported by the majority of said committee, and Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Hook,
