So the House agreed to fill the blank with "one million seven hundred thousand."

Mr. Tall moved to amend said bill by striking out in the 21st line 1st section from the word "be," to the end of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following :

"So construed as to allow the bonds issued as above specified to be sold for less than their par value."

Mr. Morsell moved as a substitute for said amendment, to strike out from the word "bonds," in the 20th line, 1st section to the end of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following :

"Be it enacted, that the bonds of the Canal Company authorized by this act to be issued shall not be pledged or disposed of for a less sum than par, and further before the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, shall be issued, good and sufficient security shall be deposited by the contractors undertaking to complete said canal with the Treasurer of Maryland, and approved by him, that the amount of said bonds shall be sufficient to complete the canal to
