Mr. Purnell moved as an additional section.

"Be it enacted, That in all cases where a slave is within a free State, and one hundred miles from the residence of his owner, he shall be deemed a runaway."

Resolved in the affirmative

The bill having been read through as amended, was passed and sent to the Senate.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Johnson, chairman of the committee on Ways and Means, entitled, an act imposing duties on promissory notes, bills of exchange, specialties, and other instruments of writing, to aid in paying the debts of the State.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of A. A.,

The blank in the first section of the bill was filled up with the "tenth of May."

On motion of Mr. Tall,

Said bill was amended by striking out in the first section, eighth line, the word "fifty" and inserting in lieu thereof, "one hundred;"

On motion of Mr. Calvert,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:
